New arrangements for publicity for Not for Profit Organisations

As a community access newspaper, Peninsula News has published details of not for profit community events on and around the Peninsula in a What's On format for over ten years.

While this information has been provided free of charge to the community, unfortunately it has not remained current and many changes have not been provided to the newspaper.

It was also restricted to regular events, did not include activities outside the Peninsula but likely to be of interest to our readers and did not have a provision for contact information for organisations that do not have a regular activity.

Also, because of the nature of the listing being provided in day order, it was difficult to find specific activities.

Starting with the first edition of Peninsula News in 2010, this information will be presented in an easier to use format where activities and like organisations will be grouped to make them easier to find and their contact information will be included.

It will now also be possible to add specific one off events with information that applies only to that event.

All Not for Profit Community Organisations that would like to be included will need to complete the following form and return it to Peninsula News by mail, fax or email together with the nominal payment amount shown where appropriate.

Organisation listings

Please list my organisation under the following category/activity heading:

All organisations listed will need to take out a subscription to Peninsula News ($50 for 12 months) and a copy of each edition will be sent to the postal address shown above.

Recipients will be expected to check their entry regularly and advise the newspaper of any changes.

The listing will remain in place for the life of each subscription and each subsequent renewal and can be updated at any time.
